SUBJECT: Policy Letter # 6 (Storage of Privately Owned Weapons)

1. References: Army Regulation 190-11 and USARAK Regulation 190-1.
2. Privately Owned Weapons (POWs) are divided into two categories. Category 1 weapons are all firearms which must be registered with the Provost Marshall. Category 2 weapons include: knives (blades over six inches), ammunition, pellet/BB guns, paint ball guns, martial arts devices, and archery equipment.
3. IAW USARAK Regulation 190-1, soldiers and family members must register all Category 1 weapons with the Provost Marshall regardless of their residence (i.e. on or off post, government quarters, billets), if they wish to bring Category 1 weapons on post.
4. There is no grace period for registering weapons with the Provost Marshall. All soldiers must carry their registration cards (USARAK Form 277) when transporting their Category 1 POWs on a military post.
5. Soldiers who live in the billets will secure their Category 1 and 2 POWs in the Unit Arms Room. Soldiers will coordinate with the unit armorer to draw their POW from the arms room at least 24 hours in advance. Soldiers may request to have category 2 POWs stored in their rooms on a case by case basis.
6. Soldiers living in the billets will secure POWs at the Provost Marshall's office if unable to gain access to the arms room (after duty hours and weekends).
